TWO SIMPSON COUNTY DRUG DEALERS SENTENCED FOR SOPHISTICATED MARIJUANA GROW OPERATION

– Over 6,000 plants worth $3.3 million

David L. Huber, United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky, announced today that GARY WAYNE BULLINGTON, age 56, of 3690 Clare Road, Franklin, Kentucky, in Simpson County, and TRUDY ELLIOTT JACKSON, age 59, of 5111 Valiant Drive, Louisville, Kentucky, in Jefferson County, were sentenced in United States District Court, Bowling Green, Kentucky, for possession with intent to distribute marijuana and manufacturing 100 or more marijuana plants.

Joseph H. McKinley, Jr., Judge, United States District Court, sentenced Bullington to 3 years and 1 month imprisonment, plus 3 years supervised release following incarceration. Bullington also agreed to forfeit $30,000 cash. Jackson was sentenced to 1 year and 6 months imprisonment, plus 3 years supervised release following incarceration. There is no parole in the federal judicial system.

On September 15, 2006, Bullington pled guilty and admitted that from on or about and between January 1, 2001, and November 9, 2005, in Simpson County, Kentucky, he conspired to knowingly and intentionally manufacture and manufactured approximately 6289 marijuana plants, which have an equivalency of 628.88 kilograms of marijuana and is worth approximately $3,327,000.00 on the street. Bullington participated in building the marijuana grow rooms, as well as tending to its daily cultivation.

Jackson pled guilty on September 15, 2006, and admitted that from on or about and between November 1, 2003, and November 9, 2005, in Simpson County, Kentucky, she conspired to knowingly and intentionally manufacture and manufactured approximately 1574 marijuana plants, which have an equivalency of 157.4 kilograms of marijuana and is worth approximately $555,200.00 on the street. Jackson's role was to trim or manicure the cultivated marijuana and to notify the co-defendants when uninvited guests entered the property.

On November 9, 2005, law enforcement officers, executing a federal narcotics search warrant at 780 Craft Road, Franklin, Kentucky, discovered a sophisticated marijuana grow operation. This marijuana grow operation was completely concealed underground and was accessed through an elevator in a shower stall of a barn. The marijuana grow operation was powered through a generator, and it had separate grow rooms and a separate drying room. Marijuana plants, grow equipment, including lights, fans, ballasts, chemical fertilizers, water tanks, and an air conditioning unit were seized.

Co-defendant Dale Snoddy, a/k/a Charles Lawrence, pled guilty on August 24, 2006, and was sentenced on November 21, 2006, to 3 years and 1 month imprisonment, plus 3 years supervised release following incarceration. Co-defendant Cecil Sherman Hume, Jr. pled guilty on October 27, 2006, and is scheduled to be sentenced on February 1, 2007.
